

Creating Healthy Partnerships & Coalitions

RRRISE Quarterly Collaborative Convening

November 5, 2025

WELCOME!

GROUNDING IN COMMUNITY

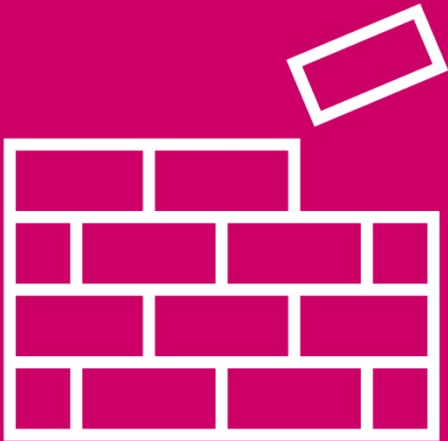

Who am I?

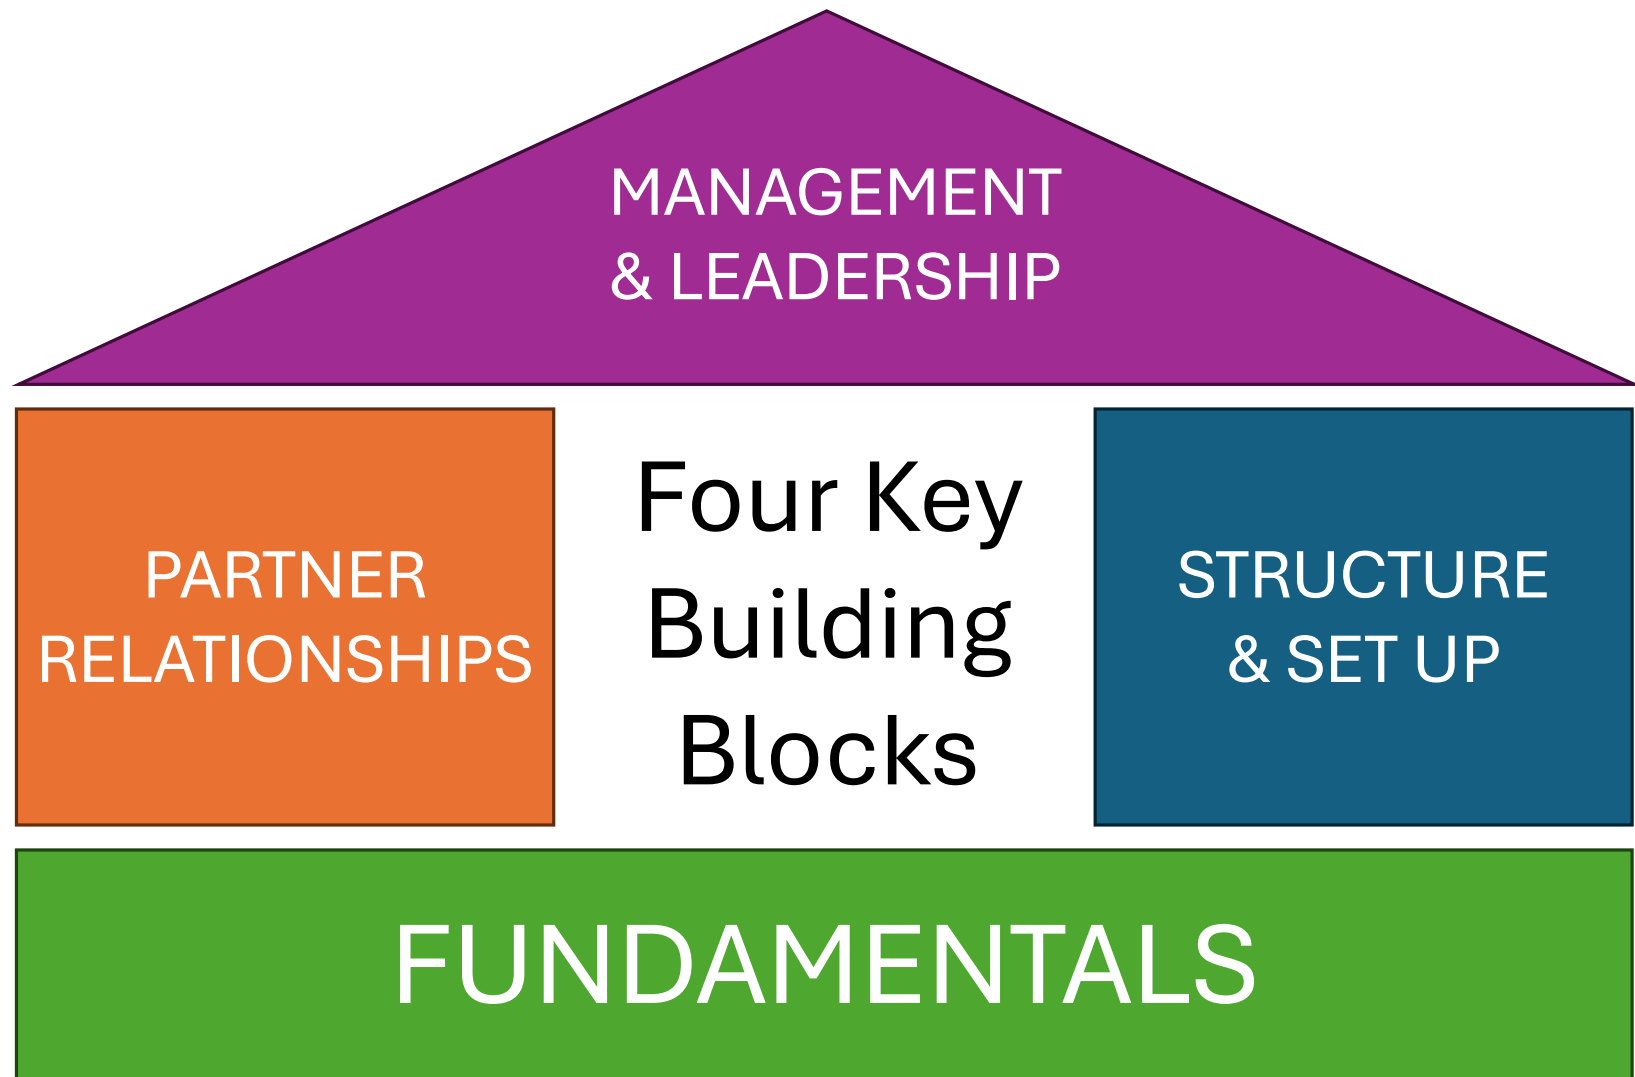

Who are you?

Name, group, pronouns, movement

Foundational Elements

FUNDAMENTALS

- Significant added value compared to resources required
- Alignment around a shared vision
- Compatibility of values

Bottom Line...

Partnerships must be able to create significant value and the 'right' partners at the table must be included to be successful

PARTNER RELATIONSHIPS

- Trust and transparency
- Power Balance and Equity
- Mutual Benefit
- Accountability and commitment

Bottom Line...

The complex, multi-faceted dynamic relationship among partners must be fostered with intention

STRUCTURE & SET UP

- Legal and fiduciary arrangement
- Governance, management and operational structures
- Clear theory of change and measures of success
- Funding and resourcing

Bottom Line...

The partnership's structure and set up should support the purpose and goals of the stakeholders.

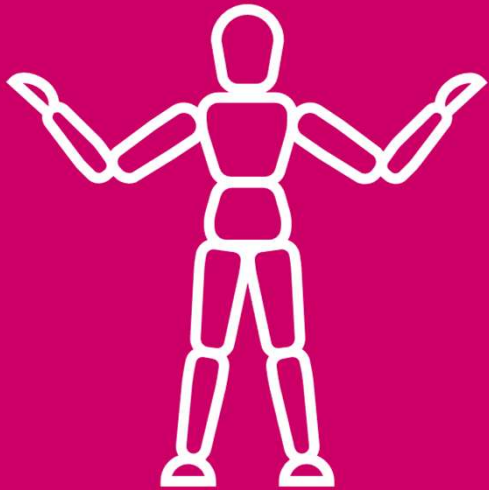

MANAGEMENT & LEADERSHIP

- Collective leadership
- Project and relationships management
- Monitoring, review, and iteration

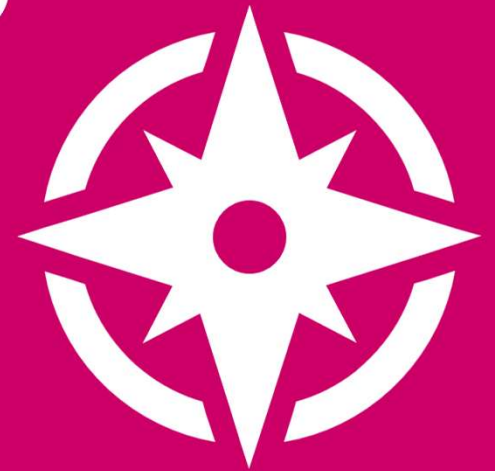

Bottom Line...

Partnerships need to be actively managed and require the application of leadership and multiple levels.

Why do partnerships fail?

Generative Relationship STAR

S

Separateness: the amount of diversity in perspective, expertise, and background among group members.

T

Tuning: the level of listening deeply, reflecting, and making sense of challenges together.

A

Action: the number of opportunities to act on ideas or innovate with group members.

R

Reason to work together: the benefits that are gained from working together.

15%

Solutions

References & Recommended Resources

The Partnering Initiative – British organization focused on research, training, and capacity building for strong, impactful partnerships across all sectors

- Partnering Guidebooks free downloadable tools
- Partnership Learning Center collaboration with United Nations, searchable resource library

Liberating Structures – collection of easy to learn microstructures that foster participation and collaboration in groups of all sizes

- Generative Relationship STAR
- 15% Solutions

Emergent Strategy – book and online tools for getting in right relationship with change

HEAD

Something
I learned

HEART

Something
I felt

HANDS

Something
I'll do