

California Center for Rural Policy (CCRP) & Rural Association of Northern California Health Officers (RANCHO) Rural Peer Learning Session

---

Mendocino County - Tribal Engagement

Monday, March 20, 2023

4:00-5:00 pm

Proposed Agenda

---

4:00-4:05 pm      Welcome (CCRP)

4:05-4:15 pm      Introductory Presentation (CCRP)

CCRP will give a quick introduction to Mendocino County with some background information.

4:15-4:40 pm      Presentation (Mendocino County)

Mendocino County's Equity Officer, Buffy Bourassa, will be presenting on Tribal engagement around Public Health. Buffy is an enrolled member of the Shingonoomi Sherwood Valley Rancheria Band of Pomo Indians, including ancestral ties to the Little River Pomo, Wiyot, and Pinoleville Pomo, with 5 years experience in Mendocino County Public Health and lived experience in Tribal country.

4:40-4:55 pm      Open Discussion / Q&A (CCRP)

This time is open for any questions from the audience or open discussion.

4:55-5:00 pm      Closing Remarks & Next Peer Learning Session

CCRP & RANCHO's next Rural Peer Learning Session will be held on Monday, April 17th from 4-5pm. Shasta County will be joining to present on the topic of Community Organizers. A registration link and agenda for this session will follow.